GAVIN HALL MAC FADYEN
INFORMATION CONCERNING

Background

During September, 1961, an investigation was conducted by the Chicago Federal Bureau of Investigation Office regarding Gavin Hall Mac Fadyen in connection with a temporary government position and the following information was obtained:

On September 11, 1961, David W. Weiser, Dean of College, Shimer College, Mt. Carroll, Illinois, furnished the following information regarding Gavin H. Mac Fadyen from the records of the Registrar's Office:

Gavin H. Mac Fadyen, 5316 Hyde Park Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois, attended Shimer College from September, 1958, through June, 1959. His date of birth is reflected as January 1, 1940, at Greeley, Colorado. Correspondence received by the college regarding Mac Fadyen on August 7, 1961, revealed Mac Fadyen's address to be 1030 East 49th Street, Chicago, Illinois. This file further indicated that Mac Fadyen requested transcripts of his college work to be sent to Roosevelt University, 430 South Michigan Avenue; the University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois; and Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana. This file revealed Mac Fadyen's father to be Dr. Douglas A. Mac Fadyen, 1030 East 49th Street, his place of birth as Toronto, Canada, and his mother's birthplace as Greeley, Colorado. This file contains correspondence from Dr. Mac Fadyen which lists his latest employment as the Director, Experimental Program of Medical Education, University of Indiana, Bloomington, Indiana. The file further reflects Dr. Mac Fadyen to have been previously associated with the Presbyterian-St. Luke's Hospital, 1753 West Congress, Chicago.

On the Application for Admission to Shimer College executed by Mac Fadyen in 1958 the following question appears in this application, "Have you ever received psychiatric therapy of any kind?" This question was answered by Mac Fadyen as "Yes, undergoing psychotherapy with Dr. Sherman Feinstein, 25 East Washington, Chicago."

Dean Weiser advised that Mac Fadyen was personally known to him and that he could describe the student as being a dynamic personality type who made a big impact on some of the students at the college. He said that it was a clerical error that allowed Mac Fadyen to become a student at Shimer inasmuch as he had been turned down for admission on one occasion. He said that the reason Mac Fadyen was denied admission on his first application was that the college had received information from a contact of theirs at the University of Chicago Laboratory High School who furnished derogatory information regarding Mac Fadyen. He stated that as he recalls this information pertained to the possibility of Mac Fadyen being associated with a "young Nazi group"; however, he was not able to verify this information.

Dean Weiser said that Mac Fadyen was the "prime mover" in the college "Politics Club". He said that this club was formed with the idea of presenting controversial speakers on the college campus to give the students a broader insight into controversial topics. He said that Mac Fadyen secured some of the speakers for this club and that although he could not recall offhand the identity of any of the speakers that they could most certainly be considered controversial. He said that Mac Fadyen secured both right and left wing speakers for this club. Dean Weiser said that he had several conversations with Mac Fadyen regarding the meaning of "radical" and that Mac Fadyen had told him that he was neither "left wing or right wing". However, Dean Weiser said that he could not believe this. He said that Mac Fadyen seemed to think that he knew more about socialism than any of the college teachers.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

RE: GAVIN HALL MAC FADYEN

Dean Weiser further related that Mac Fadyen was a "manipulator of people" and was a constant agitator among the students. He said that Mac Fadyen was strictly an opportunist and if he was applying for any government employment he undoubtedly has some prime object in mind in doing so, either that he wants to influence a group of people or learn something specific regarding this employment.

Dean Weiser said that in his years at Shimer College Mac Fadyen was the first person that he could recall that he could not recommend for a position of trust. He said that in his opinion Mac Fadyen could not or would not be loyal to anyone or to any government. He said that Mac Fadyen in his opinion was just not a loyal person. Dean Weiser said that he thought Mac Fadyen to be an extreme left wing socialist. He said that he arrived at this opinion through Mac Fadyen's actions and conversations while as a student at Shimer College.

Mr. Robert E. Keohane, Professor of Social Sciences, Shimer College, Mount Carroll, Illinois, advised on September 11, 1961, that he is acquainted with Gavin Hall Mac Fadyen, having known him as a student at Shimer College and also having had him in his social science classes. Mr. Keohane described Mac Fadyen as a person with tremendous leadership potential if directed in the proper direction. He said that while at Shimer College Mac Fadyen was a self-appointed leader of the "left wing students" on campus. He said that Mac Fadyen was often a leader of protest against the regular constituted authority whether it be factual or non-factual. He said, however, he rather admired this trait in Mac Fadyen even if misdirected.

Mr. Keohane said that Mac Fadyen definitely considered himself as a socialist, however, from his conversations with Mac Fadyen and Mac Fadyen's actions he could not distinguish whether Mac Fadyen was a socialist or in some part a Communist. He said that he was not familiar enough with the various facets of the Socialist Party groups to distinguish them from some part of the Communist Party. He said that, however, Mac Fadyen represented himself to be a "true socialist".

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

RE: GAVIN HALL MAC FADYEN

Mr. Keohane said that he had no positive evidence whatsoever that Mac Fadyen was a Communist and that he would state that Mac Fadyen certainly was not pro-Russian Communist or pro-Russian. He said that in his opinion Mac Fadyen was a loyal American; however, there was some question as to his loyalty to our economic system, inasmuch as Mac Fadyen definitely represented himself to be a "true socialist".

Mr. Keohane said that based on his association and experience with Mac Fadyen in 1958-59 he certainly does not feel that Mac Fadyen should be considered a good security risk, at least until further inquiry would indicate to the contrary. He said that however, as stated above, his opinions are based on his knowledge of Mac Fadyen approximately two years ago and considerable change could have come over Mac Fadyen.

Criminal Record

On September 11, 1961, Chief of Police Orville Flink, Mount Carroll, Illinois, Police Department, and Sheriff Harry Miller, Carroll County Sheriff's Office, both advised that their records contained no arrest for Gavin Hall Mac Fadyen.

On September 12, 1961, the records of the Bureau of Records and Communications, Chicago, Illinois, Police Department, were reviewed and revealed that Gavin H. Mac Fadyen, 5316 Hyde Park, Chicago, born on January 1, 1940, at Greeley, Colorado, was arrested on a traffic warrant on June 19, 1961. On July 7, 1961, this bond was forfeited.

On May 8, 1963, the records of the Bureau of Records and Communications, Chicago, Illinois, Police Department, were cause to be reviewed and revealed that on January 25, 1962, Gavin H. Mac Fadyen, who resided at 1221 East 55th Street, Chicago, was arrested for disorderly conduct at the University Realty Corporation, 1443 East 57th Street, Chicago. This case was heard before Judge Harry Comerford in Boys Court and the Judge discharged Mac Fadyen.

The above police record further reveals that Mac Fadyen, 1221 East 55th Street, Chicago, was issued a traffic warrant on March 7, 1962, at 320 North Clark Street, Chicago. On March 30, 1962, Mac Fadyen was fined $25.00 on this count.

RE: GAVIN HALL MAC FADYEN

It is noted the January 25, 1962, issue of the "Chicago Daily News", Red Streak Edition, a Chicago daily newspaper, page 5, column 1, carried an article concerning the antisegregation demonstration at the University of Chicago, and at the University City Realty Corporation, 1444 East 57th Street, Chicago. This company rents some of the University's apartments. This article sets forth a photograph of Gavin H. Mac Fadyen as being a participant in this sit-in demonstration.

Credit Record

On September 13, 1961, and May 2, 1963, Mrs. Dolores Coffey, Clerk, Chicago Credit Bureau, Incorporated, advised that the files of that agency contained no information concerning Gavin Hall Mac Fadyen.

Organization Affiliation

Chicago Committee to Protest
Intervention in Lebanon (CCPIL)

On August 11 and 20, 1958, a source advised that Gavin Mac Fadyen attended two CCPIL meetings held on August 5 and 11, 1958, respectively, in Chicago, Illinois. ↪

Fair Play for Cuba Committee
(FPCC)

↪ On December 5, 1960, a second source advised that Gavin Mac Fadyen was in attendance of a FPCC meeting held on December 1, 1960, at the Hamilton Hotel, 20 South Dearborn Street, Chicago.

Independent Socialist League (ISL),
Young Socialist League (YSL), and
Socialist Youth Committee of Chicago
(SYCC)

On July 25, 1958, source one advised that Gavin Mac Fadyen attended Chicago meetings of the ISL and YSL held on July 23, 1958. ↪

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

RE: GAVIN HALL MAC FADYEN

Mac Fadyen's presence at the above meetings was corroborated by source three on July 25, 1958. ~~ε~~

It is noted on February 20, 1963, <sup>ε</sup>[sources one and three] identified the photograph of Gavin H. Mac Fadyen which appeared in the January 25, 1962, issue of the "Chicago Daily News", Red Streak Edition, supra.

On September 1, 1958, source one advised that Gavin Mac Fadyen attended YSL Emergency National Convention, held August 29, 1958, at 114 West 14th Street, New York, New York. ~~ε~~

<sup>ε</sup>[On September 12, 1958, sources one and three] advised that Gavin Mac Fadyen attended a YSL-Young Peoples Socialist League (YPSL) Unity Convention held August 30 and 31, 1958, at 34 East 12th Street, New York, New York. ~~X~~

The YPSL is the youth group of the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation (SP-SDF), which is lead by Norman Thomas.

~~ε~~[On November 20, 1958, source one] advised that ~~X~~Gavin Mac Fadyen joined the YSL in 1958; was a YSL member until its dissolution and also had been a former member of the SYCC in Chicago.

~~ε~~[On November 20, 1958, source three] advised that ~~X~~Gavin Mac Fayden was a former member of the YSL and the SYCC in Chicago.

Student Peace Union (SPU)

~~ε~~[On May 8, 1963, source two] reported that ~~X~~according to the January 31, 1963 issue of the "National Guardian", page 4, column 1, Gavin H. Mac Fadyen represented the SPU at an International Confederation of Disarmament and Peace at Oxford, England, on January 4, 1963.

Student Peace Union

The Student Peace Union, a national student peace organization, as of November 30, 1962, claimed to have an estimated 20,000 members organized into some 250 chapters and affiliates at colleges and high schools throughout the nation. Chapters were usually organized on school campuses but in some places on the city level.

The Student Peace Union was an organization of young people who believed that war could no longer be successfully used to settle international disputes and that neither human freedom nor the human race itself could endure in a world committed to militarism.

Without committing any member to a precise statement of policy, the Student Peace Union draws together young people for a study of alternatives to war and engages in education in action to end the present arms race.

In regards to attitudes toward the Soviet Union of the Communist Party (CP), the Student Peace Union took the position that to be meaningful, the same standards of criticism must be used in evaluating the actions of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics as were used in evaluating the actions of the United States or any other country. All the persons who held leadership positions in the Student Peace Union in the Chicago area were personally strongly anti-Soviet and anti-communist.

This source stated further that to his knowledge, there were no known communists anywhere in the whole organization and in those areas where the CP was likely to be able to make inroads, great care was exercised to keep them out.

RE: GAVIN HALL MAC FADYENCHICAGO COMMITTEE TO PROTEST INTERVENTION IN LEBANON

A source advised on September 26, 1958, that at a meeting held at the Quaker House, 5615 South Woodlawn, Chicago, Illinois, on July 16, 1958, attended by people representing such organizations as the Fellowship of Reconciliation of Chicago, the Independent Socialist League, the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation, the Young Socialist League, and the American Socialist Clubs, the landing of American troops in Lebanon was discussed. It was agreed that the general public should be aroused about this issued by:

1. Sending telegrams to government officials.
2. Advertising in local newspapers.
3. Contacting prominent people to endorse a statement of criticism.

A steering committee was elected which drafted a statement and decided the committee was not to be named until after endorsement of the statement by prominent people.

In early August, 1958, the name Chicago Committee to Protest Intervention in Lebanon was adopted and a leaflet announcing a mass meeting on August 11, 1958, on the topic "Crisis in the Middle East" was distributed. The mass meeting was held on August 11, 1958, at 32 West Randolph Street, Chicago. Speakers at this meeting included Norman Thomas, former Socialist Party Presidential candidate, criticized American policy that led to the use of United States troops in Lebanon and recommended changes including creation of a United Nations international police force and removal of United States troops from Lebanon.

On August 21, 1958, because it appeared as though the trouble in Lebanon was diminishing, an intention of converting the committee to a foreign policy committee was discussed. A meeting was to have been called for mid-September on this topic, but no further meetings or activities have taken place and for all intents and purposes, the committee has ceased to function.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contains a full page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On October 3, 1960, a source advised that the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in New York had become active in the FPCC, and that SWP members, in a FPCC election, had been able to remove several Communist Party (CP) members who were on the Executive Board of the FPCC and gain control of the organization.

A second source advised that an announcement from National Headquarters of the SWP was made on September 24, 1961, to the effect RICHARD GIBSON had fired the secretary in the FPCC headquarters and was trying to break the SWP influence in the FPCC.

Column 2, page 8, of the February 22, 1962, edition of "The New York Times" contains an article captioned, "Castro Backer Resigns," which announced that ROBERT TABER had resigned as Executive Secretary of the FPCC and as President of the Institute for the Improvement of Inter-American Relations, Inc., which had organized the FPCC in April, 1960.

On May 17, 1962, a third source advised that National Headquarters of the FPCC is located in Room 329 at 799 Broadway, New York City, and that the FPCC is operating under the direction of RICHARD GIBSON, Acting National Executive Secretary of the FPCC.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE,
CHICAGO CHAPTER

A source advised on May 11, 1962, that the mailing address for the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC), Chicago Chapter, is Post Office Box 4474, Chicago 80, Illinois.

A second source advised in October, 1960, that the Chicago Chapter of the FPCC was formed during the summer of 1960 at Chicago, Illinois, under the direct guidance and leadership of RICHARD CRILEY, a member of the State Committee, Communist Party (CP) of Illinois.

A third source in August, 1960, furnished a leaflet entitled, "What Is Really Happening in Cuba?" distributed by the FPCC, Post Office Box 4555, Chicago 80, Illinois. The aims and purposes of the FPCC as set forth in this leaflet include the following: "To disseminate the truth, to combat untruth; to publish and distribute factual information which the United States mass media suppresses. In general, to contribute to foundations for peace, friendship, and understanding between ourselves and the Cuban people." The leaflet reflects the FPCC plans to accomplish these aims: "By mailing of informational bulletins; organizing public meetings and forums; providing speakers, movies, and slides for meetings of interested organizations, placing ads in newspapers; to visit Cuba and see for themselves what conditions really are."

A fourth source advised that as of May 7, 1962, this Committee continued to exist, with the same aims and purposes, but under the direction and leadership of former communists, communist sympathizers, members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP), and others who are pro-CASTRO supporters.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

INDEPENDENT SOCIALIST LEAGUE (ISL)
FORMERLY WORKERS PARTY (WP)

The May 4, 1942, issue of "Labor Action", then an official publication of the Workers Party (WP), carried an article which reflected that the WP was formed in April, 1940, as a result of a split within the leadership of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). The article stated that when the Hitler-Stalin Pact was signed and Poland invaded, the minority group within the SWP, in proclaiming the formation of the WP, condemned the pact as being imperialistic in nature and stated it would not support either imperialist camp.

The April 25, 1949, issue of "Labor Action" contained an account of the Fifth National Convention of the WP, held March 24-27, 1949, in New York City, which reflected the change of name of the organization from the WP to the Independent Socialist League (ISL) in order to emphasize the character of the group as a propaganda group for the spreading of socialist ideas and not as a full-fledged political party.

The July 14, 1958, issue of "Labor Action", an official publication of the ISL, contained an article captioned "The ISL Program in Brief". The article indicated: "The ISL stands for socialist democracy and against the two systems of exploitation which now divide the world: capitalism and Stalinism. The ISL, as a Marxist movement, looks to the working class and its ever-present struggle as the basic progressive force in society. The ISL is organized to spread the ideas of socialism in the labor movement and among all other sections of the people. There can be no lasting and genuine democracy without socialism and there can be no socialism without democracy."

The September 22, 1958, issue of "Labor Action" contained an undated statement signed by the Political Committee of the ISL which indicated that the ISL had been dissolved. The statement urged former ISL members to join the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation.

A source advised on October 10, 1958, that the Chicago Branch of the ISL, which was an affiliate of the national organization, was dissolved in September, 1958, and all active members joined the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation on October 9, 1958.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

SOCIALIST YOUTH COMMITTEE OF CHICAGO, also known as Socialist Youth Committee, University of Chicago

A source advised on May 21, 1959, that the Socialist Youth Committee of Chicago (SYCC) was organized at a meeting of the Left-Wing Caucus of the Young Socialist League (YSL) in Chicago on October 17, 1957. At this meeting a constitution was adopted stating that the aims and principles of the SYCC were limited to one end -- that of helping to bring about the regroupment of all radical youth into a common organization.

A second source advised on May 13, 1959, that the SYCC has no national affiliation. This source stated the leadership of the SYCC is composed of members of the Chicago Branch Socialist Workers Party (CBSWP) who exert their influence in the activities of the SYCC. The SWP has utilized the SYCC in the past as a means of youth regroupment in the Chicago area.

The SYCC registered with the Student Activities Office at the University of Chicago during the fall of 1958 as the Socialist Youth Committee - University of Chicago. This is the name of the organization for sponsoring affairs on campus.

A source advised on April 1, 1960, that the Socialist Youth Committee of Chicago is defunct and no such organization exists today. It became inactive after the Young Socialist Editorial Board accorded recognition to a group known as Young Socialist Supporters. This group later changed its name to Young Socialist Alliance and former members of the Socialist Youth Committee of Chicago comprised the nucleus of this new organization.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

SOCIALIST YOUTH LEAGUE (SYL)

Source has advised that the Socialist Youth League (SYL) began in 1945 when several militant members of the Young People's Socialist League (YPSL), the youth organization of the Socialist Party, accepted a proposal that they become affiliated with the Workers Party. The first issue of the group's newspaper, 'Youth Action for Socialism', in October, 1945, contained an article which indicated that '...Only socialism can answer youth's needs for jobs, peace, education and a fuller life...Our organization is the only national revolutionary youth group in America.'

"The March 1, 1954, issue of the 'Young Socialist Challenge', published as page three of 'Labor Action', an official publication of the Independent Socialist League, contained an article concerning the creation of the Young Socialist League (YSL) which pointed out that at a unity conference occurring February 12-14, 1954, at Labor Action Hall, New York, New York, a merger occurred between the YPSL and the SYL. The new organization was named the YSL.

A second source, on June 15, 1954, made available the minutes of the YSL's National Action Committee meeting of April 13, 1954, which reflected that one S. Siteman, 'Chairman of SP (Socialist Party) Youth Committee', had objected to a statement appearing in 'Commerce', a New York University journal, which indicated that the YPSL merged with the SYL to form the YSL. He explained that the YPSL did not merge with anyone, that it continued to exist as the youth section of the Socialist Party. He explained that a small group of the YPSL was dropped, expelled, or suspended from that organization and joined the SYL, which he characterized as the youth group of the 'Trotskyite ISL'. He explained that after these few former members of the YPSL joined the SYL, the SYL then proceeded to changed its name for its own purposes."

The new organization was named the YSL.

On June 15, 1954, a source made available the minutes of the YSL's National Action Committee meeting of April 13, 1954, which reflected that one S. He explained that after these few former members of the YPSL joined the SYL, the SYL then proceeded to change its name for its own purposes.

On April 9, 1956, a second source advised that the YSL has frequently worked in close sympathetic cooperation with the ISL toward similar objectives, although each major issue given mutual consideration is decided upon by these organizations individually. The YSL serves as an apprenticeship for the ISL, but ISL selection of members from YSL ranks is made on an individual and person basis. In many instances YSL members are also members of the ISL. The YSL and the ISL utilize the same printing house in New York City and the YSL publication is printed as an insert in "Labor Action".

Re Director letter to NY, dated 11/7/68.

On 11/18/68, SA AUGUST J. MICEK caused a search to be made of the records of BSS and BCI, NYCPD, re subject, with negative results.

On 11/15/68, IC JOHN L. KAPP caused a search to be made of the records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York, re subject, with negative results.

A review of the indices of the NYO reflect that MACFADYEN appears to be identical to subject of NYfile#140-12262 entitled "GAVIN HALL MACFADYEN, Temporary Substitute Carrier, Post Office Department, Chicago, Ill., SGE." (BUfile # unknown) Background re MACFADYEN set forth in this file.

The above file reflects that MACFADYEN reportedly joined the Young Socialist League in 1958 and was reportedly a former member of the Socialist Youth Committee of Chicago.

Further review of the NYO indices show that MACFADYEN is connected with the Independent Socialist Club, a pacifist organization seeking an alternative between the lines of the USSR and the USA, (i.e., the third camp) which accordingly is not the subject of investigation by this Bureau.

In view of the above, no further investigation is being conducted by the NYO and this case is being placed in a closed status.
